

Field Trip 4 of 4: 24-26 March 2015

Welcome to Memorial Park, a series of four virtual field trips in 2013, 2014 and 2015 following the entire roading project and the creation of Pukeahu National War Memorial Park. These field trips are supported by the NZ Transport Agency \(NZTA\) [1] - there is more material on the NZTA Education Portal [2]. The fourth and last field trip is on 24-26 March 2015: just one month before Anzac day when the park will be the focus of New Zealand's commemoration of all New Zealander's killed in war. The day itself, 25th of April marks the centenary of the landing of New Zealand and Australian soliders - the Anzacs - at Gallipoli Peninsula in 1915. Enrol now [3].

Introduction

Memorial Park is a project of national significance in the build-up to First World War centenary commemorations in 2015. The project is the undergrounding of State Highway 1 to create Pukeahu National War Memorial Park for all New Zealanders.
